

and lectures

keynote speakers

1. Peter Fonagy

PhD, London, England: How can psychotherapy practice be informed by research findings: The pros and cons of evidence-based psychotherapy

2. Helmut Remschmidt

MD, Marburg, Germany: How can child psychotherapy practice be informed by research findings: Lessons learnt from experiences in Marburg

3. David A Shapiro

PhD, Sheffield, England: Which treatment approaches work for whom

4. David Orlinsky

PhD, Chicago, USA: Therapist factors as determinants of psychotherapy outcome

5. K Roy MacKenzie

MD, Vancouver, Canada: Augmenting clinical practice with brief measurement instruments

6. Jeffrey Binder

PhD, Atlanta, USA: The training of psychotherapists: What does empirical research tell us?

7. Klaus Grawe

PhD, Bern, Switzerland: Agents of change in the processes of psychotherapy

8. Larry Beutler

Ph D, Santa Barbara, USA: What works for whom: Patient-therapist matching and other in-session process factors

9. Glen Gabbard

MD, Topeka, USA: The revolution in the neurosciences: Implications for psychotherapy research and practice

10. J Christopher Perry

MD, Montreal, Canada: The two worlds of the therapist and the researcher: Shall they ever meet?